Elaine Ann (Hoag) Kolodzaike, 77, was called home to heaven on May 31, 2020. Elaine was born on November 24, 1942, in Toledo, Ohio. The daughter of Agnes (Altman) and Leo Hoag, who preceded her in death.

Elaine graduated from Rogers High School in 1961. She resided in Toledo, Ohio, throughout her life. She enjoyed spending her summers with her family at her cottage in Clarklake, Michigan. Elaine's unique and fun-loving spirit made her a friend to anyone she met. She was deeply grounded in her Catholic faith and saw the good in all people.

She will be sadly missed by her husband of 52 years, Michael A. Kolodzaike; children, Julie (Craig) Hoerig, Michael L. Kolodzaike, Michelle Lange, Angela (Patrick) Fleming and Scott (Keely) Kolodzaike. Her 12 grandchildren, who affectionately called her "Mimi", Ian, Luke, Chloe and Bryce Hoerig, Molly Kolodzaike, Jarred and Zach Lange, Jameson, Laney and Kaylen Pappas, and Gunnar and Blaise Fleming. Also, her brother, Thomas (Carolyn) Hoag, and Susan (Kenneth) Gilders; and several nieces and nephews.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by sisters, Mary Hahn, and Joanne Barnaby; and brothers, James, John and Robert Hoag.
