Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at Little Flower

THIS WEEK IN THE ATRIUM

This week was our last Atrium presentation before Easter. We read about two Maxims from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 7.

1. Why do you notice the splinter in your brothers eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your eye?
2. Ask and it be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Consider with your Child:

This week spend some time thinking about your Lenten journey and how the Maxims can help you to prepare.

This Week:

Return to Matthew Chapter 7.
Re-read what we discussed in our video on Sunday.
